

Weekly Newsletter

Written for the Week Beginning 8th October 2018

Dear Parents/Carers,

This week we have continued to provide opportunities to celebrate difference and enhance our curriculum through visitors. On Monday, Josef visited our Year 5 class to talk about living with a disability. On Tuesday, we had a visit from Eden from the Somerset Multicultural Society. She started our day off with an assembly to raise awareness and then did some workshops with different classes. She wanted me to let you all know that there is a free family orientated fun day being held at 'The Red Brick Building' Glastonbury running from 12pm – 5pm on Sunday 7th October to celebrate Black History and culture. Pop along if you can.

Finally, now that the weather is starting to get a little colder, please could you ensure that children have a coat in school every day. We do try and use our outdoor environment as much as possible. Thanks for your cooperation with this.

With very warm wishes

Jo Hale

Mollie the Dog

It was a very exciting Friday for the children at West Pennard. Mollie came in for her first visit and she is settling in beautifully. She read with lots of children in Year 6 and went for a little walk.

School Photographs – Tuesday 9th

Bring your best smile and your smartest uniform!

During the school day, all pupils will have an individual photograph taken and all siblings will have a photograph taken together. There is however no pressure to buy these photographs from Tempest.

If you would like a family photograph taken (ie: with pre-school siblings and/or mum and dad) please arrive between 8.15am-8.45am. 'Early bird' arrivals from 8.15am please buzz the 'wrap around care' button and you'll be guided to the photographer.

Dogs

We have been informed that there has been dog's mess near the entrance to the school – please be vigilant.

Visit to Butleigh School

A group of students from Years 5 and 6 went to Butleigh School on Monday to share and discuss a book they had been reading. It was lovely to meet other book lovers and share opinions. Thanks to the Wells Festival of Literature for purchasing the books for us.

Muffi Day Reminder

Non-uniform day is on Friday 12th October to raise money for The Somerset Poppies remembrance project. Please bring donations to the school office.
